ERARD PIANOS

PARIS.

The celebrity these truly magnificent pianos have attained is due to ERARD'S inventions, which have given them historically, absolute supremacy among all piano makers.

The Royal Warrants and honours conferred on them date from 1785.

For over a century the world's greatest Pianists have played the ERARD, the best known being Liszt, Thalberg, Rubinstein, Busoni, Paderewski.

The latest models are remarkable for their BEAUTIFUL TONE and MECHANICAL PERFECTION.

CONSULAR SERVICE.

(Illustrations may be seen at the Foreign Office on application.)

FULL DRESS.

WORN ONLY AT HIS MAJESTY'S COURTS AND STATE BALLS, AND ON IMPORTANT STATE OCCASIONS AT HOME WHEN ORDERED.

COATEE.—Blue Cloth, stand collar, single-breasted, to be buttoned with nine buttons placed at equal distances, and to be embroidered with Laurel and Oakleaf in Silver and saw edge in Gold ; two buttons on the back at the waist and one on each tail.

The COATEE of a Consul-General and Consul is embroidered on the collar, cuffs, pocket-flaps and back. The embroidery on the collar and back is the same for both grades ; that on the cuffs is $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches wide for a Consul-General and 2 inches wide for a Consul.

The COATEE of a Vice-Consul is embroidered only on the collar and cuffs, the embroidery on the cuffs to be $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches wide. (On the collar the Silver embroidery is on the front and sides only, leaving one-third of the Velvet collar with the Gold saw edge alone.)

The collar and cuffs are of Blue-Black Velvet and the pocket-flaps and back-piece of cloth are similar to the body of the coat.

BUTTONS.—Gilt, convex, frosted ; having the Royal Arms (without supporters) ; the same pattern of button to be used in each rank. (Plate II, No. 31.)

BREECHES.—White Kerseymere with three small covered buttons and Gilt buckles at the knees.

STOCKINGS.—White Silk.

SHOES.—Black Patent Leather with Gilt buckles.

GLOVES.—White.

HAT.—Consul-General.—Black Cocked Hat, Regulation pattern without binding ; Black ribbons on the two front sides, Black cockade, and treble bullion loop of Silver, according to pattern ; plain Gold bullion tassels, and Black Ostrich feather border.

HAT.—Consul.—The same as the Consul-General, but without the feather border, and with a double bullion loop.

HAT.—Vice-Consul.—The same as the Consul, but with only a single bullion loop.

The hat should be worn with the cockade on the right.

SWORD.—French hilt, Gilt wire grip and helmet top, blade of 30 inches. Black Leather scabbard with Gilt mountings. Gold Lace guard sword-knot with worked head, and tassels of small dead and bright Gold bullions. White Silk web belt to be worn under the coat, with White Cloth frog. (The same pattern sword, sword knot and frog is used in each rank.)

LEVÉE DRESS.

WORN AT HIS MAJESTY'S LEVÉES AND ON STATE OCCASIONS ABROAD ; ON PAYING OFFICIAL VISITS TO AND RECEIVING OFFICIAL VISITS FROM THE COMMANDERS OF HIS MAJESTY'S SHIPS OF WAR ; AND AT NAVAL COURTS.

BUTTONS,
HAT,
SWORD,
SWORD KNOT,
SWORD BELT,
GLOVES,

TROUSERS.—Blue Cloth with stripes of Silver Oakleaf scalloped lace on the side seams.

The lace for Consuls-General, $2\frac{1}{4}$ inches wide.

The lace for Consuls and Vice-Consuls, $1\frac{3}{4}$ inches wide.

BOOTS.—Black Wellington boots or plain Patent Leather boots with Military Fronts and Elastic sides.

GREAT COAT OR CLOAK.—Blue Cloth of any substance, double-breasted, lined Scarlet, to reach within a foot of the ground ; stand and fall Black Velvet collar ; two rows of buttons in front (Plate II, No. 31) six in each row, and 6 inches apart across; Blue Cloth strap behind with a large button at each end. Slit on left side to allow access to sword hilt.

CAPE.—Blue Cloth, lined Black, with four small buttons down front, and to button on to collar of cloak; Gilt hook and chain.

The buttons are to be of the pattern worn upon the Full Dress uniform.

The cloak and cape may be worn together or separately.

Consular Agents wear the uniform of Vice-Consuls.

No uniform is worn by Pro-Consuls.

The Chief Clerk of the Supreme Court at Shanghai is permitted to wear the Vice-Consular uniform.

A Consular officer who does not hold a diplomatic appointment must not, without permission, wear any other than the Consular uniform; should he hold an appointment entitling him to wear another uniform, he is not allowed, during his employment in the Consular service, to wear such other uniform without special permission from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

Consuls-General, Consuls, and Vice-Consuls of foreign countries, being British subjects, if they attend Courts and Levées in their official capacity, are permitted to wear the official Consular uniform of the country they represent.

OFFICERS OF THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

1. Gentlemen in the India Office who have held the appointments of Governor, Member of Council, Chief Commissioner, or Secretary to the Government of India, are allowed to wear at this Court (on permission being obtained through the Secretary of State) the Class of Uniform, so far as it corresponds with the Civil Uniform recognised at the Court of St. James's, to which their Offices in India have respectively entitled them.

2. Members of the India Civil Service who are entitled to wear Uniform, Officers of the Political Department of the Government of India and Civil Officers to whom, on account of their discharging Political duties, the privilege to wear Civil Uniform has been extended, when on leave in England or otherwise present there during their Service, are permitted to wear their Uniform at this Court.

3. Retired Civil or Political Officers who, when last on duty in India, were entitled to wear Uniform, are permitted to wear at this Court the Uniform to which their last office in India entitled them.

4. Alternative official dress for Indian gentlemen who may become Members of Councils and Ministers, and who do not desire to wear Civil Uniform, is as follows:—Coat, Blue Cloth, buttoned from neck to below waist, and then falling loose to knees; nine buttons up the front (to button), Black Silk lining; Buttons, Gilt, mounted, the Royal Arms (without supporters) surmounted by the Imperial Crown; the Collar and Cuffs of Black Velvet. Gentlemen entitled to wear second-class uniform have an edging of purl embroidery on velvet collar and cuffs. Gentlemen entitled to wear third-class uniform have no embroidery on collar and cuffs. Trousers white or white pyjamas. Head dress, distinctive national head dress worn on ceremonial occasions. Socks, Black Silk. Shoes, Black Patent Leather with Gilt buckle, Rose, Shamrock, and Thistle pattern.

FULL AND LEVÉE DRESS.

5. The five classes of Civil Officers detailed in the Schedule in Part III*, pages 195-198, wear for Full and Levée Dress the Civil Uniform as described on pages 47-49, as follows :—

Officers of Class	I	...	Privy Counsellor's Civil Uniform.
„	„	II	... 1st Class Civil Uniform.
„	„	III	... 2nd „ „
„	„	IV	... 3rd „ „
„	„	V	... 5th „ „

6. The three classes of Officers of the Political Department of the Government of India detailed in Rule II of the rules in Part III, page 202, wear for Full and Levée Dress the Civil Uniform as described on pages 47-49, as follows :—

Classes I and II	...	3rd Class Civil Uniform.
Class III	5th „ „

With the exception that the Buttons bear the Royal Arms with supporters. (Plate I, No. 1.)

7. Indian Police Officers and retired Officers of the Force with approved service of not less than 15 years may wear their uniforms at Court Functions.

N.B.—(1) At Full Dress Functions, such as Courts and State Balls, Officers entitled to wear Indian Civil Uniform should wear White Breeches, White Silk Hose, and Shoes with Gilt buckles, instead of Trousers and Boots as in India.

(2) In the case of Indian gentlemen who hold any of the offices specified in the Schedule in Part III, pages 195-198, a pagre may be substituted for the cocked hat, helmet or forage cap prescribed in the rules. If preferred, the National Dress which they are accustomed to wear on ceremonial occasions may be worn in place of uniform.

* Vide rules "A," page 193.

WHITE TROPICAL UNIFORM (COLONIAL SERVICES).

WHITE TROPICAL UNIFORM (COLONIAL SERVICES).

The White Uniform as approved for use by Colonial Officials in tropical countries may be worn at Court in this country as well as on all Ceremonial occasions overseas, when the wearing of Uniforms is prescribed, at the option of those entitled to it.

Only Governors-General, Governors, or High Commissioners may wear the first class of this uniform, and they are at liberty to wear with it the cape forming part of the Governor's special Uniform. The other classes will be worn by persons who are entitled, or have received permission, to wear the corresponding class of the ordinary Civil Uniform.

The adoption of the White Uniform in any tropical Colony is left to the discretion of the Governor, but if it is adopted the wearing of uniform (or the alternative dress described on page 117) is compulsory on all occasions duly prescribed.

When the uniform is worn mounted, Black or Brown knee boots, with White or Dark Blue pantaloons, at the discretion of the Governor. Straight-necked Steel hunting spurs.

*HELMET.—White, of the Wolseley pattern, bearing in front a Gilt badge, the Royal Arms with supporters.

†SWORD.—The usual Civil sword, the frog and scabbard underneath the coat, the hilt appearing through a slit in the side of the coat.

ORDERS, DECORATIONS AND MEDALS.—Full-size Orders (including the Riband of a Knight Grand Cross), Decorations and Medals will be worn with this Uniform at Court in this country ; and also on Ceremonial occasions overseas when the Governor may so order. On other occasions the Ribands only of Orders, Decorations and Medals will be worn.

N.B.—A sealed pattern of the Uniform may be seen at the Office of the Crown Agents for the Colonies, 4, Millbank, S.W.1.

* Governors-General, Governors or High Commissioners may, if they so desire, wear a plumed helmet bearing a plume similar to that on the cocked hat worn with the Governor's Special Uniform.

† Governors-General, Governors and High Commissioners may wear the mameluke-hilted sword worn with the Governor's Special Uniform, but it should be worn in the same way as the Civil sword, i.e., no external belt will be worn, the frog and scabbard being underneath the coat.

SERGEANTS-AT-ARMS.

The Sergeants-at-Arms are entitled to wear the Household Uniform of the 4th Class (see page 1). They may, however, wear Naval, Military or Air Force Uniform of superior rank, if so entitled.

The Silver SS. Collar of Office is only worn when on duty on special occasions, such as at the Opening of Parliament and Proclamations.

For Mourning, the regulation Crape Band is worn.

HOUSE OF LORDS.

The Clerk of the Parliaments and certain other Officers of the House of Lords are entitled to wear Civil Uniform. (See Schedule on page 63.)

The Lord Great Chamberlain.—This Uniform is similar to the Privy Counsellors Household Uniform (see pages 1 and 2) in every respect, except that the Cloth of the Coat is Scarlet instead of Blue.

The Uniform of the Secretary of the Lord Great Chamberlain is the same as that of the 4th Class Household (see pages 1 and 2), except that the Cloth of the Coat is Scarlet instead of Blue, with collar and cuffs of Blue Velvet.

The Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod wears at Courts, Levées, and Evening State Parties a Naval, Military, or Civil Uniform if so entitled, or the Old Style of Velvet Court Dress (see page 115).

In the House of Lords he wears a Court Suit of Black Cloth (see page 107), but with Black Hilted Sword, Black Knee and Shoe Buckles, and carries a Peer's Cocked Hat. No miniature medals or ribbons are worn.

When summoning the Commons he wears in addition his Chain and Badge of Office, and carries the Black Rod.

On the occasion of the Opening of Parliament by the King he wears the same Dress as at Court, but with Badge and Chain, and carries the Black Rod.

Broad-Hemmed Frill and Ruffles, instead of Lace, are worn when the Court is in Mourning.

The Sergeant-at-Arms and Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms wear at Courts, Levées and Evening State Parties a Naval, Military, or Civil Uniform, if so entitled; or a Court Suit of Black Cloth (see page 107), but with a Silver Hilted Sword and Silver Knee and Shoe Buckles, as always worn in the House of Lords. The Silver SS. Collar of Office is worn (only with the Cloth Suit) on special occasions, such as at the Opening of Parliament. For Mourning—With the Black Cloth Court Suit, a Black Sword with Black Mountings and Black Knee and Shoe Buckles, also a Broad-Hemmed Frill and Ruffles instead of Lace. With Uniforms, the regulation Crape Band is worn.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

The Speaker appears at Courts, Levées, and Evening State Parties in the Old Style of Velvet Court Dress, as described on page 115, or the Privy Counsellors Civil Uniform, to which he is entitled as a Privy Counsellor. But when attending upon His Majesty, together with the House of Commons, such as at the Opening of Parliament, or on the occasion of the presentation of an Address to the King, he appears in his State Robe of Black Satin Damask trimmed with Gold, over his Court Suit of Black Velvet, with Full Bottomed Wig, Beaver Three-cornered Hat, and White Gloves.

In the House of Commons he wears a Court Suit of Black Cloth, as described on page 107, with White Cambric Necktie, or Bands. Over all a Black Silk Robe with Train, Full Bottomed Wig, and Three-cornered Hat.

When the Court is in Mourning the Speaker wears in the House of Commons a Black Paramatta Gown with Broad-Hemmed Frill and Ruffles instead of Lace, Lawn Bands, Weepers on Coat, Black Shoe and Knee Buckles.

The Clerk of the House of Commons, the Clerk Assistant, and certain other Officers of the House of Commons are entitled to wear Civil Uniform. (See Schedule on page 54.)

The Speaker's Secretary is entitled to wear at Courts and Levées Civil Uniform, or the Court Suit of Black Cloth with Lace Frill and Ruffles, Steel Buckles on Breeches and Shoes, Cocked Hat and Sword. (See page 107.) (For Mourning, see next paragraph.)

The Sergeant-at-Arms, the Deputy Sergeant-at-Arms and the Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms wear at Courts, Levées, and Evening State Parties a Naval, Military, or Civil Uniform, if so entitled; or a Court Suit of Black Cloth (see page 107), as always worn in the House of Commons. The Silver SS. Collar of Office is worn by the Sergeant-at-Arms (only with the Cloth Suit) on special occasions, such as at the Opening of Parliament. For Mourning—With the Black Cloth Court Suit, a Black Sword with Black Mountings and Black Knee and Shoe Buckles, also a Broad-Hemmed Frill and Ruffles, instead of Lace. With Uniforms, the regulation Crape Band is worn.

THE DIPLOMATIC CORPS.

Foreign Ambassadors, Ministers, &c., and the personnel of Embassies and Legations, are expected to appear at Court and on State occasions in the Uniforms, or Dress, prescribed by the regulations of their own Court for functions of corresponding character.

The Ambassador and personnel of the Embassy from the United States, and of some other Embassies and Legations accredited to the Court of St. James's, wear EVENING DRESS with breeches and stockings at Courts, State Balls, and Evening State Parties, but EVENING DRESS with TROUSERS when Levée Dress is worn.

NAVY, ARMY AND AIR FORCE.

Officers appear at Court in the Uniform of their Rank, as specified for them by the Admiralty, War Office and Air Ministry.

A Field-Marshal wears White Leather Pantaloons, Jacked Boots and carries the baton at Levées and Courts and on State occasions, except as follows :—

(a) Court Balls and State Banquets.—Overalls and Wellington Boots are worn. The baton is not carried.

(b) Funerals.—As at (a) unless otherwise ordered.

The baton is carried only when White Leather Pantaloons and Jacked Boots are worn.

The Household Cavalry, when not on duty at Courts and State Balls, wear Overalls and plain Military Patent Leather Boots, with Steel Spurs and Short Gloves. But at Levées and when on duty at Courts and State Balls, Leather Breeches, Jack Boots with Steel Spurs and Gauntlets must be worn.

The Kilt is worn by all Officers of kilted Regiments, and special articles of dress authorized by Dress Regulations are worn by all Highland and Scottish Regiments at Courts and Levées.

Mourning is not worn at Courts and Levées by Naval, Military and Air Force Officers, unless the Court is in mourning.

See “ Dress Regulations for the Navy.”

“ Dress Regulations for the Army.”

“ Dress Regulations for the Air Force.”

SPECIAL RESERVE AND TERRITORIAL ARMY.

Officers appear in the Uniform of the Corps according to the Regulations of their particular Regiments, in the same manner as Regular Officers.

See “ King’s Regulations.”

“ Special Reserve Regulations.”

“ Territorial Army Regulations.”

AUXILIARY AIR FORCE, RESERVE OF AIR FORCE
OFFICERS, AND SPECIAL RESERVE.

Officers appear in the Uniform of their rank according to the Regulations prescribed, in the same manner as Regular Officers.

COURT MOURNING.

When a period of Court Mourning is announced, every wearer of Uniform or Court Dress (with the exceptions mentioned below) must wear a Black crape band, $3\frac{1}{4}$ inches wide, on the left arm above the elbow.

ARCHBISHOPS, BISHOPS AND CLERGY.

Archbishops wear :—

At Levées and Courts :—

WHITE LAWN MOURNING BANDS, and BLACK KNEE and SHOE BUCKLES.

At State Banquets, Evening State Parties and Full Dress Luncheons :—

BLACK KNEE and SHOE BUCKLES, and a band of crape $3\frac{1}{4}$ inches wide on the left arm above the elbow.

Bishops and Clergy wear :—

At Levées :—

WHITE LAWN MOURNING BANDS and WEEPERS of same on Cassock, and BLACK KNEE and SHOE BUCKLES.

At Courts, State Banquets, Evening State Parties and Full Dress Luncheons :—

BLACK KNEE and SHOE BUCKLES, and a band of crape $3\frac{1}{4}$ inches wide on the left arm above the elbow.

JUDICIAL AND LEGAL.

A BLACK PARAMATTA GOWN is worn instead of a silk gown. Hemmed FRILL and RUFFLES instead of lace. LAWN BANDS. WEEPERS on coat. BLACK SHOE and KNEE BUCKLES. When not wearing gown—crape band on left arm.

Sergeants-at-Arms at Courts and Levées wear with a COURT SUIT of BLACK CLOTH a BLACK SWORD with BLACK MOUNTINGS, BLACK KNEE and SHOE BUCKLES, and a Broad-hemmed FRILL and RUFFLES, instead of Lace.

No indication of Mourning is worn with the Alternative Dress, described on page 117.

Black Gloves are only worn when special orders are issued by the Earl Marshal or the Lord Chamberlain.

Gentlemen attending Courts and Levées may indicate private Mourning by wearing a Black Crape Band $3\frac{1}{4}$ inches wide. This permission does not apply to Naval, Military and Air Force Officers, who only wear a Crape Band at Court when the Court is in Mourning.

DRESS WORN BY LADIES AT THEIR MAJESTIES' COURTS.

Ladies attending Their Majesties' Courts will wear Court Trains, while veils with Ostrich feathers will be worn on the head.

Three Small White feathers mounted as a Prince of Wales's Plume, the centre feather being a little higher than the two side ones, to be worn slightly on the left hand side of the head, with the tulle veil of similar colour attached to the base of the feathers.

The veil should not be longer than 45 inches.

Lace lappets may be worn.

Coloured feathers are inadmissible, but in cases of deep mourning Black feathers may be worn.

The Train, which should not exceed 2 yards in length, must not extend more than 18 inches from the heel of the wearer when standing.

There are no restrictions with regard to the colour of the dresses or gloves for either debutantes or those who have already been presented.

Gloves must be worn.

Bouquets and Fans are optional.

Sketches of typical Court Dress are on view at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace.

THE INSIGNIA OF THE MOST NOBLE ORDER OF THE GARTER.

REGULATIONS AS TO THE WEARING OF THE INSIGNIA OF THE VARIOUS ORDERS WITH FULL DRESS AND LEVÉE DRESS.

THE MOST NOBLE ORDER OF THE GARTER (K.G.).

The Collar is worn on "Collar Days" (see page 167), and on other occasions when due notification is given ; but not after sunset, nor when mounted on Ceremonial Parades, such as the Trooping of the Colour, except when specially ordered. It is worn over the shoulder straps or epaulettes of Uniform Coats and also over aiguillettes, and fastened at the shoulders by White Satin Bows $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches wide, the Collar hanging at equal distance back and front. On these occasions the Riband and Badge is not worn.

THE MOST ANCIENT AND NOBLE ORDER OF THE THISTLE (K.T.).

The Collar is worn on "Collar Days" (see page 167), and on other occasions when due notification is given ; but not after sunset, nor when mounted on Ceremonial Parades, such as the Trooping of the Colour, except when specially ordered. It is worn over the shoulder straps or epaulettes of Uniform Coats and also over aiguillettes, and fastened at the shoulders by White Satin Bows $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches wide, the Collar hanging at equal distance back and front. On these occasions the Riband and Badge is not worn.

THE MOST ILLUSTRIOUS ORDER OF ST. PATRICK (K.P.).

The Riband is worn over the right shoulder, the Badge resting on the left hip, behind the Sword in Civil Uniform, and the Star affixed to the left breast.

The Collar is worn on "Collar Days" (see page 167), and on other occasions when due notification is given; but not after sunset, nor when mounted on Ceremonial Parades, such as the Trooping of the Colour, except when specially ordered. It is worn over the shoulder straps or epaulettes of Uniform Coats and also over aiguillettes and fastened at the shoulders by White Satin Bows $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches wide, the Collar hanging at equal distance back and front. On these occasions the Riband and Badge is not worn.

Only one Badge is provided, so that when the Riband is worn the Badge is removed from the Collar and vice versa.

FIRST CLASS.

SECOND CLASS.

THIRD, FOURTH AND FIFTH CLASSES.

Sketches showing the Manner in which the Insignia of the Five Classes of an Order should be worn.

NOTE.—In Diagram 3 the Third Class is the Neck Badge and the Fourth or Fifth Classes the Badge on the breast.

THE ROYAL VICTORIAN ORDER.

G.C.V.O. or 1st Class ; K.C.V.O. or 2nd Class ; C.V.O. or 3rd Class ;
M.V.O. or 4th and 5th Classes.

The Royal Victorian Chain is entirely distinct from the Insignia of the Order. It may be bestowed in conjunction with, or in addition to, or without, the Grand Cross of the Order, and is worn on all occasions when the Riband is worn, either in Full Dress, Uniform, or in Evening Dress.

THE MOST EXCELLENT ORDER OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE (MILITARY AND CIVIL).

G.B.E. (men and women) or 1st Class ; K.B.E. (men), D.B.E. (women) or 2nd Class ; C.B.E. (men and women) or 3rd Class ;
O.B.E. (men and women) or 4th Class ; M.B.E. (men and women) or 5th Class.

THE ORDER OF THE COMPANIONS OF HONOUR.

C.H. (men and women). This Order should never be worn in miniature.

The Insignia of the 1st Class (Knight Grand Cross or Knight Grand Commander) are worn in the following manner (for wearing with Velvet Court Dress, see page 143) :—

The Riband is worn over the right shoulder and in such a position that the bow, which rests on the left hip and from which the Badge is suspended is immediately below the belt or sash, as the case may be, and in Civil Uniform behind the sword.

To ensure the Riband fitting well, the top edge should be fashioned to avoid sagging, and the ends should not be stitched together under the bow but held behind it by a large hook and eye, with an additional small hook and eye just above to ensure their being kept close together.

The Star is affixed to the left breast.

Collars are worn on " Collar Days " (see page 167), and on other occasions when due notification is given, but not after sunset, nor when mounted on Ceremonial Parades, such as the Trooping of the Colour, except when specially ordered. They should be worn over the shoulder straps or epaulettes of Uniform Coats and also over aiguillettes, and fastened at the shoulders by White Satin Bows, 1½ inches wide, the Collar hanging at equal distance back and front.

When the Collar (from which the Badge is suspended) is worn, the Riband of that Order, with its Badge, should not be worn, but it may be replaced by the Riband of another Order.

In the case of a G.C.M.G., a G.C.I.E., a G.C.V.O., and a G.B.E., one Badge only is provided, so that when the Collar is worn the Badge is removed from the Riband and attached to the Collar and vice versa.

Dames Grand Cross.—The Riband (2¼ inches in width) is worn over the right shoulder. It should be attached to the dress on the shoulder and at the waist just above the bow, from which is suspended the Badge. This ensures the Riband keeping in the right position and fitting properly. The Star is worn on the left side, not higher than 6 inches above the waist.

Collars are worn on “ Collar Days ” (see page 167), and on other occasions when due notification is given, but not after sunset, except when specially ordered. They should be worn over the shoulders and fastened there by White Satin Bows, 1½ inches wide, the Collar hanging at equal distance back and front.

If a Knight possesses two or more Orders which entitle him to a Riband and Collar of each, only the Riband of one Order and the Collar of another should be worn together.

The Insignia of the 2nd Class (Knight Commander) are worn as follows (for wearing with Velvet Court Dress, see page 143) :—

The Riband with the Badge attached is worn round the neck inside and under the Collar of the Uniform Coat, so that the Badge may hang about ¾ of an inch below the Collar, the Star being affixed to the left breast.

In the case of a Dame Commander of the Order of the British Empire, the Bow with the Badge attached should be worn on the left side, the Star being affixed below the Badge on the same side.

KNIGHTS BACHELOR BADGE.

The Knights Bachelor Badge should be worn, if alone, in the position in which the Star of an Order is worn. If worn together with the Star of any Order it should be worn after the Star of a Knight Commander of the Order of the British Empire, before the Star of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem, and before the Star of any Foreign Order.

When two Stars are worn they should be directly above each other, the Star of the senior Order being at the top ; but when three Stars are worn, the Star of the senior Order is worn above and the Stars of the two junior Orders beneath in line with each other ; alternatively, at the discretion of the wearer, the Stars of the senior Order and second Order may be worn above in line with each other, and the Star of the third Order beneath. In the case of four Stars, see diagram facing page 136. This is the maximum number allowed to be worn at any one time.

The Insignia of the 3rd Class (Companion or Commander) are worn as follows (for wearing with Velvet Court Dress, see page 143) :—

The Riband of the Badge attached is worn round the neck inside and under the Collar of the Uniform Coat, so that the Badge may hang about $\frac{3}{4}$ inch below the Collar.

Not more than three Neck Badges are allowed to be worn at any one time.

For instructions as to wearing more than one Neck Badge, see page 142, and diagram facing page 136.

In the case of ladies, the Badge is affixed to a Bow, and is worn on the left side.

In the case of those possessing Ribands and Stars of Foreign Orders, when in the presence of a Sovereign or Head of State of the Country to which the Order belongs, the Insignia should be treated as senior to any British Orders they may possess.

The Badge of the 4th and 5th Classes (Officer or Member) is worn as follows (for wearing with Velvet Court Dress, see page 143):—

The Riband with the Badge attached is affixed to the left breast. In the case of ladies, the Badge is affixed to a Bow, and is worn on the left side.

THE ORDER OF MERIT.

The Riband with the Badge attached is worn round the neck, in the same manner as the Badge of the 3rd Class of other Orders. It is never worn in miniature.

THE ORDER OF THE CROWN OF INDIA.

This Order is worn only by ladies. The Badge is affixed to a Bow, and is worn on the left side. It is never worn in miniature.

THE ORDER OF THE COMPANIONS OF HONOUR.

The Riband with the Badge attached is worn round the neck, in the same manner as the Badge of the 3rd Class of other Orders. It is never worn in miniature.

In the case of ladies, the Badge is affixed to a Bow, and is worn on the left side.

THE DISTINGUISHED SERVICE ORDER.

The Badge is affixed to the left breast by a brooch.

THE IMPERIAL SERVICE ORDER.

The Badge is affixed to the left breast by a brooch.

In the case of ladies, the Badge is affixed to a Bow, and is worn on the left side.

Decorations and Medals should be worn on the left breast. When two or more are mounted on a bar they should be arranged so that the lower edge is in line.

Orders, Miniature Decorations and Medals are worn with the Alternative Dress (described on page 117) on Ceremonial occasions when Levée or Full Dress is worn.

(For instructions as to wearing Insignia with the above Dress, and also with ordinary Evening Dress, see pages 143 to 145.)

In Evening Dress, ladies may wear Orders, Decorations and Medals in miniature on occasions when Insignia are worn ; but when gentlemen wear Levée or Full Dress, ladies should wear full-size Orders, Decorations and Medals, as described above and on pages 137 to 140. If, however, this is impracticable, ladies may wear Miniatures.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR WEARING BADGES
ROUND THE NECK WITH UNIFORM BY THE POSSESSORS OF THE INSIGNIA OF MORE THAN ONE ORDER WHICH IS SO WORN.

Only one Riband and Badge, i.e., the senior one, is worn round the neck inside and under the Collar of the Uniform Coat, so that the Badge hangs about an inch outside and below the front of the Collar. All other Badges are worn, one below the other, commencing about $\frac{3}{4}$ inch below the senior badge, each suspended from a riband emerging about $\frac{3}{4}$ inch between the buttons of the Uniform Coat. A small eye is stitched inside the coat to which the riband is fastened by a hook. (See diagram facing page 136.)

Not more than three Neck Badges are allowed to be worn at any one time.

WEARING OF INSIGNIA WITH THE VELVET COURT DRESS, THE CLOTH COURT DRESS, AND THE ALTERNATIVE DRESS.*

Ribands of the various Orders are worn under the coat, but over the waistcoat. Only one Riband, that of the senior Order, is worn. (See diagram, page 146.)

Stars are worn on the left side of the coat. Knights Grand Cross, and Knights Commanders on all occasions, except on Collar Days, when wearing the Stars of their Orders, should also wear a Riband and Badge, and vice versa.

Knights Bachelor Badge. (See page 139.)

A Neck Badge (full size) is suspended from a Riband of the Order and worn under the white tie, the Badge hanging about an inch below. (See diagram, page 146.)

If in possession of more than one Neck Badge, the senior one should be worn round the neck, and all other Orders, Decorations and Medals, including those of the Neck Badges, in miniature.

Medals are worn, in miniature, on the left breast, or, in the case of the Alternative Dress, on the left lapel of the coat.

NOTE.—Full size War Medals may, should the possessor desire to do so, be worn with this Dress.

The Badges of the Order of Merit and Companions of Honour are never worn in miniature.

In the case of the Velvet Court Dress, Old Style (page 115), a Neck Badge should be worn as follows :—

The Neck Riband (preferably miniature width) should be worn under the net stock, or, where a lace fall with ordinary linen collar and evening tie are worn, under the neck band of the tie, the Badge hanging about 1 inch below the level of the neck stud and resting on the lace frill or fall.

* For details of these Dresses, see pages 114–117.

WEARING OF INSIGNIA WITH EVENING DRESS.

(For occasions of wearing, see pages 150 and 151.)

Ribands of Knights of the Orders of the Garter, Thistle and St. Patrick, and Knights Grand Cross and Knights Grand Commanders of other Orders, are worn under the Evening Dress coat, but over the waistcoat. Only one Riband is worn. (See diagram, page 146.) If in possession of more than one Riband it is usual for the Riband of the senior Order to be worn, but it is permissible, if more appropriate, for a junior one to be worn.

Stars (full size never in miniature) are worn on the left side of the coat. Knights Grand Cross and Knights Commanders on all occasions, when wearing the Stars of their Orders, should also wear a Riband and Badge, and vice versa.

Not more than four Stars should be worn at any one time.

For how to wear more than one Star, see page 139.

Knights Bachelor Badge. (See page 139.)

A Neck Badge (full size) is worn under the white tie suspended from a Riband of the Order (preferably miniature width), the Badge hanging about an inch below. (See diagram, page 146.) The Badges of the Order of Merit and Companions of Honour are never worn in miniature.

If in possession of more than one Neck Badge (only one should be worn at a time), it is usual for the senior one to be worn round the neck, but as it may be more appropriate for a junior one to be so worn, it is permissible to wear all the Neck Badges (with the exception of the Order of Merit and Companions of Honour) in miniature with the Decorations and Medals on the lapel of the coat, and in addition the full-size Neck Badge most appropriate to the occasion round the neck.

Thus, in the case of the holder of a K.C.M.G., a C.B., and a C.S.I., at an Official India Office Dinner, the C.S.I. Badge would be worn round the neck, and the K.C.M.G., C.B. and C.S.I. Badges in miniature on the lapel of the coat, and, of course, the K.C.M.G. Star.

It is important to note that this applies only to the possessor of more than one Neck Badge. If only possessed of one Neck Badge, it is always worn full size round the neck and never in miniature on the lapel of the coat.

These remarks also apply to possessors of Foreign Neck Badges, as it would, for instance, be more appropriate for the holder of a Legion of Honour Neck Badge to wear it at an official dinner at the French Embassy, in place of his senior Neck Badge usually worn.

Orders worn on the breast, Decorations and Medals are worn in miniature on the left lapel of the coat. The width of ribands should be $\frac{5}{8}$ inch and the length $1\frac{1}{4}$ inches, but when two or more are mounted on a bar they should be arranged so that the lower edge is in line.

These instructions will not affect the existing regulations with regard to the wearing of Insignia, in miniature, by Naval, Military, and Air Force Officers.

The foregoing regulations also apply to the Red Evening Hunt Coat when Orders and Decorations are worn.

In Evening Dress, ladies may wear Orders, Decorations and Medals in miniature on occasions when Insignia are worn ; but when gentlemen wear Levée or Full Dress, ladies should wear full size Orders, Decorations and Medals, as described on pages 137 to 140. If, however, this is impracticable, ladies may wear Miniatures.

THE WEARING OF KNIGHTS GRAND CROSS RIBANDS AND NECK BADGES WITH EVENING DRESS.

The Knight Grand Cross Riband is worn on the waistcoat and does not pass over the shoulder and down the back as with the uniform coat. It is fastened at the front of the armhole with two holes and buttons and at the opposite hip front by a button-holed pointed flap (as shown in the above Sketch). The top edge of the Riband should be fashioned to avoid sagging and undue covering of the shirt front.

A Neck Badge (full size) is worn under the white tie, suspended from a riband of the Order (preferably miniature width), the Badge hanging about an inch below.

NOTE.—For further particulars as to wearing Insignia with Evening Dress, see pages 144 and 145.

WEARING OF INSIGNIA WITH THE DRESS OF ARCHBISHOPS, BISHOPS AND CLERGY AT COURT.

At Levées, with Convocation Robes, D.D. Full Dress Robes and Black Silk Geneva gowns :—

Stars are worn on the left breast of the Robe.

Neck Badges (full size) are worn suspended from Ribands of the Orders, the senior one at the top, hanging about 4 inches below the neck. If there is more than one Badge, the second one should hang about 2 inches below the one above it. Not more than two Neck Badges are worn at any one time.

Decorations and Medals (full size) are worn on the scarf, above the level of any Stars which the possessor may wear on his Robe.

Ribands of Knights Grand Cross are never worn with Convocation Robes, but with the D.D. Full Dress robes and Black Silk Geneva gowns, the Riband (senior one only) is worn under the robe.

At Courts, with Purple or Black Cloth Court Coat, Stars, Neck Badges, Decorations and Medals are worn as described on page 143.

Ribands of Knights Grand Cross are also worn as described on page 143.

Chaplains' Badges are worn, below the bar of Medals, on all occasions when Orders and Decorations are worn.

NOTE.—When the Prelate or other Ecclesiastical Officer of an Order of Knighthood is also the possessor of a Neck Decoration, the Prelate's Badge is worn below any other Neck Badge.

WEARING OF ORDERS, DECORATIONS AND MEDALS WITH JUDICIAL OR LEGAL DRESS.

1. The Lord Chancellor when attending a Court or Levée or at the Opening of Parliament or attending St. Paul's Cathedral or a special thanksgiving service or at the reception of the Lord Mayor and the Abbey Service and the ceremony of Opening the Law Courts on the 12th October :—

- (a) If the occasion is one on which a Collar is worn, wears the Collar of any Order which he possesses under the Gold Robe or Black Gown, as the case may be, and any decorations or medals in full size upon his coat.
- (b) If the occasion is not one upon which a Collar is worn, wears the broad riband of any order of which he is a Knight Grand Cross, in the same manner as it is worn in evening dress, that is, across the waistcoat and under the coat, and any Orders, Decorations or Medals in full size round the neck or upon the coat in accordance with the usual regulations.

2. The Master of the Rolls and the President of the Probate, Divorce and Admiralty Division and Lords Justices of the Court of Appeal :—

- (a) On similar occasions (other than Courts) follow the instructions given above in the case of the Lord Chancellor.
- (b) At Courts, follow the directions given for the wearing of decorations by persons wearing black velvet Court suits.

3. The Lord Chief Justice of England :—

- (a) When attending a Levée will follow the instructions given above for the cases of the Lord Chancellor and Lords Justices of Appeal.

- (b) When attending a Court will follow the instructions given above for the case of the Lords Justices.
- (c) On any other occasion of State upon which he wears his robes of office, if the occasion is one upon which the Collar of an Order is worn, will wear the Collar of any Order which he possesses, together with the Gold Chain of Office ; if the occasion is not one upon which the Collar of an Order is worn, will wear his Gold Chain of Office without either the Collar or the Badge of any Order or any medals or decorations.

4. Judges of the High Court, when wearing either a black velvet Court suit (at a Court), the black cloth Court suit with black silk gown (as at a Levée), or the full dress scarlet robe, will follow the instructions appropriate to the wearing of that particular costume as set out above.

5. County Court Judges, King's Counsel, Recorders and other gentlemen having the right to wear black silk gowns and full-bottomed wigs, upon the occasions when that costume is worn with lace, follow the instructions given above in the case of the Lord Chief Justice and the Lords Justices of Appeal.

Judges of the Dominions and of the Colonies and gentlemen holding the rank of King's Counsel in any Colony or Dominion will follow the instructions given above on any occasion by reference to the costume worn by them upon that occasion.

Judges of whatever rank and King's Counsel, when wearing their robes of office, will never wear Collars, Decorations or Medals except upon the occasions set out above.

OCCASIONS WHEN ORDERS, MINIATURE DECORATIONS AND MEDALS SHOULD BE WORN WITH EVENING DRESS.

Knights Grand Cross and Knights Commanders on all occasions when wearing the Stars of their Orders, will also wear a Riband and Badge.

The following are the occasions upon which Orders, Miniature Decorations and Medals are to be worn WITH EVENING DRESS, viz. :—

PROVISIONAL.

Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals applicable to Persons in the Service of the Crown.

ORDERS.

1. No person in the Service of the Crown shall accept or wear the Insignia of any Foreign Order without having previously obtained His Majesty's permission to do so, signified either :—

- (a) By Warrant under the Royal Sign-Manual, or
- (b) By restricted permission conveyed through the Keeper of His Majesty's Privy Purse.

2. When permission is given by Warrant under the Royal Sign-Manual, the Insignia of the Foreign Order may be worn at all times and without any restriction.

When restricted permission is given the Insignia may only be worn on the occasions specified in the terms of the letter from the Keeper of His Majesty's Privy Purse conveying the Royal sanction.

3. Full and unrestricted permission by Warrant under the Royal Sign-Manual is contemplated in the following cases :—

For a Decoration conferred—

On an Officer in His Majesty's Naval, Military or Air Forces lent to a Foreign Government ; on an Officer in His Majesty's Naval, Military or Air Forces attached by His Majesty's Government to a Foreign Navy, Army or Air Force during hostilities ; or on any British Official lent to a Foreign Government and not in receipt of any emoluments from British public funds during the period of such loan.

4. Restricted permission is particularly contemplated for Decorations which have been conferred in recognition of personal attention to a Foreign Sovereign, the Head of a Foreign State, or a member of a Foreign Royal Family, and which are therefore of a more or less complimentary character, but will also be granted for Decorations conferred on other exceptional occasions when in the public interest it is deemed expedient that they should be accepted.

5. Restricted permission will generally be given for Decorations conferred in the following cases, but, as indicated in the preceding paragraph, will not necessarily be limited to these cases :—

- (1) On British Ambassadors or Ministers abroad when the King pays a State visit to the country to which they are accredited.

(NOTE.—A State visit is defined as one on which the King is accompanied by a Minister or High Official in attendance.)

- (2) On Members of Deputations of British Regiments to Foreign Heads of States.
- (3) On Members of Special Missions when the King is represented at a Foreign Coronation, Wedding, Funeral, or similar occasion ; or on any Diplomatic Representative when specially accredited to represent His Majesty on such occasions (but not on the members of his Staff).

Restricted permission will not be given to—

- (a) British Ambassadors or Ministers abroad when leaving, except on final retirement from His Majesty's Diplomatic Service and in respect of a decoration offered by the Head of State to whom they were last accredited.

- (b) British Officers attending Foreign Manœuvres.
- (c) Naval Officers of British Squadrons visiting Foreign Waters.

6. Both in the case of full and of restricted permission the matter will be submitted to the King by His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, who shall be under no obligation to consider applications for permission unless the desire of the Head of a Foreign State to confer upon a British subject the Insignia of an Order is notified to him before the Order is conferred, either through the British Diplomatic Representative accredited to the Head of the Foreign State, or through the Diplomatic Representative of the latter at the Court of St. James.

7. When His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the King's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained His Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to wear the Insignia of a Foreign Order, he shall signify the same to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause a Warrant, if it be a case for the issue of a Warrant as defined in Rule 2, to be prepared for the Royal Sign-Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the King, a notification thereof shall be inserted in the "Gazette."

Persons in whose favour such Warrants are issued will be required to pay to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department a stamp duty of 10s.

8. The Warrant signifying His Majesty's permission may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a clause providing that His Majesty's licence and permission does not authorise the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor within His Majesty's Realms.

MEDALS.

9. Medals, with the exceptions specified below, and State decorations not carrying membership of an Order of Chivalry, are subject to the Regulations in the same manner as Orders, but permission is given by Letter and not by Royal Warrant.

10. Medals for saving or attempting to save life at sea or on land, whether conferred on behalf of the Head or Government of a Foreign State or by private Life Saving Societies or Institutions, may be accepted and worn without His Majesty's special permission ;

Subject, however, in the case of members of His Majesty's Naval, Military or Air Forces, to any restrictions imposed by the King's Regulations for those Services as to the wearing of such medals with uniform.

Applications for His Majesty's permission to wear other Medals conferred by Private Societies or Institutions and Commemorative Medals cannot be entertained.

11. The King's unrestricted permission to accept and wear a Foreign War Medal will only be given to (1) Members of His Majesty's Naval, Military or Air Forces if serving with a Foreign Army, Navy or Air Force with His Majesty's licence, and (2) Military, Naval or Air Attachés or Officers and other ranks and ratings officially attached to Foreign Armies, Navies or Air Forces during hostilities.

12. In exceptional cases, when for special reasons it is deemed expedient that the acceptance of the Medal should not be declined, His Majesty will grant restricted permission. Such cases will be judged on their merits, and the circumstances in which the Medal may be worn will be specified in the Letter conveying His Majesty's permission.

GENERAL.

13. Ladies are subject to the Regulations in all respects in the same manner as men.

WEARING OF FOREIGN ORDERS, DECORATIONS AND MEDALS (II.).

NOTE.—All communications relating to permission to accept and wear Foreign Decorations and Medals should be addressed to the Under Secretary of State, Foreign Office.

PROVISIONAL.

Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals applicable to Persons NOT in the Service of the Crown.

ORDERS.

1. No subject of His Majesty shall accept or wear the Insignia of any Foreign Order without having previously obtained His Majesty's permission to do so, signified either :—

- (a) By Warrant under the Royal Sign-Manual, or
- (b) By restricted permission conveyed through the Keeper of His Majesty's Privy Purse.

2. When permission is given by Warrant under the Royal Sign-Manual, the Insignia of the Foreign Order may be worn at all times and without any restriction.

When restricted permission is given the Insignia may only be worn on the occasions specified in the terms of the letter from the Keeper of His Majesty's Privy Purse conveying the Royal sanction.

3. The full and unrestricted permission by Warrant under the Royal Sign-Manual is designed to meet cases in which the Decoration has been earned by valuable service rendered to the Head of the State conferring it, or to the State itself. Such service must have been both of manifest and substantial value to the Head of the State or State concerned and not inconsistent with British interests ; and must have been rendered within the period of five years immediately preceding the notification of the Decoration to His Majesty's Government as prescribed under Rule 5.

4. Restricted permission is particularly contemplated for Decorations which have been conferred in recognition of personal attention to a Foreign Sovereign, the Head of a Foreign State, or a member of a Foreign Royal Family, and which are therefore of a more or less complimentary character, but will also be granted for Decorations conferred on other exceptional occasions, in the case of services of manifest and substantial value when not rendered direct to the Foreign State, or when in the public interest it is deemed expedient that they should be accepted.

Restricted permission will not be granted in the case of Decorations conferred for services rendered more than five years previously.

5. Both in the case of full and of restricted permission the matter will be submitted to the King by His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, who shall be under no obligation to consider applications for permission unless the desire of the Head of a Foreign State to confer upon a British subject the Insignia of an Order is notified to him before the Order is conferred, either through the British Diplomatic Representative accredited to the Head of the Foreign State, or through the Diplomatic Representative of the latter at the Court of St. James.

6. When His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the King's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained His Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to wear the Insignia of a Foreign Order, he shall signify the same to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause a Warrant, if it be a case for the issue of a Warrant as defined in Rule 2, to be prepared for the Royal Sign-Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the King, a notification thereof shall be inserted in the "Gazette."

Persons in whose favour such Warrants are issued will be required to pay to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department a stamp duty of 10s.

7. The Warrant signifying His Majesty's permission may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a clause providing that His Majesty's licence and permission does not authorise the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor within His Majesty's Realms.

MEDALS.

8. Medals, with the exceptions specified below, and State decorations not carrying membership of an Order of Chivalry, are subject to the Regulations in the same manner as Orders, but permission to wear is given by Letter and not by Royal Warrant. No permission is needed to accept a Foreign Medal if it is not to be worn.

9. Medals for saving or attempting to save life at sea or on land, whether conferred on behalf of the Head or Government of a Foreign State or by private Life Saving Societies or Institutions, may be accepted and worn without His Majesty's special permission.

Applications for His Majesty's permission to wear other Medals conferred by Private Societies or Institutions, and Commemorative Medals, cannot be entertained.

10. His Majesty will not grant permission to wear any Foreign War Medal if the person on whom it is to be or has been conferred was during the war acting in contravention of the Foreign Enlistment Act.

GENERAL.

11. Ladies are subject to the Regulations in all respects in the same manner as men.

SCALE OF GENERAL OR SOCIAL PRECEDENCE.

Reprinted from "BURKE'S PEERAGE," 1928, by permission, with amendments.

The precedence here indicated is that which is known as general or social precedence, and is admitted on all occasions and in all society. The Clergy, the Bar, the Military, and other classes have amongst themselves a certain relative rank; but such relative rank is peculiar to each of these classes, and gives them no position on the general or social scale. The following scale comprises those only who enjoy dignities, or (in case of men) official appointments coming within some one of the authorities here cited of statute, patent, or usage.

FOREIGN AMBASSADORS AND MINISTERS.

In this country Foreign Ambassadors yield precedence, so far as personages of British nationality are concerned, only to members of the Royal Family who are Royal Highnesses. Ambassadors are usually given a similar position.

Foreign Ministers are by courtesy in this country given precedence after Dukes and before Marquesses, and their wives after Duchesses and before Marchionesses.

REGULATIONS FOR THEIR MAJESTIES' COURTS.

LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE,
ST. JAMES'S PALACE, S.W.1.

(1) Ladies already presented at Court who wish to be summoned to attend in order to make presentations at Their Majesties' Courts should make written application to the Comptroller, Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, S.W.1. The date on which applications are to be made is notified in the Press each year.

(2) A lady attending may present one lady, for whom she must be responsible, in addition to her daughter or daughter-in-law. The names of ladies to be presented should be forwarded by the lady who wishes to make the presentation when she sends in her own name.

(3) A lady presented for the first time can only present her daughter or daughter-in-law on the occasion when she herself is presented, and when possible should arrange for the simultaneous presentation of herself and her daughter.

(4) No applications can be received from ladies who wish to be presented. Their names must be forwarded by the ladies who wish to make the presentation.

(5) Ladies may be accompanied to Court by their husbands if the latter have been presented. Ladies who wish to be accompanied by their husbands should state the fact in their applications, and they should also state if the ladies they desire to present wish to be accompanied by their husbands. It is essential that their husband's full title and designation be given. Once the summons has been issued the amending of a summons card in order to include a lady's husband can only be permitted under the most exceptional circumstances.

(6) A lady who has attended a Court in either of the last two years cannot have her name submitted, except under very exceptional circumstances.

(7) When making their applications, ladies should state the year when they last attended Court.

(8) Details with regard to dress for both ladies and gentlemen will be issued with the summons cards.

(9) Summonses are issued to ladies about three weeks before the date on which their attendance is required.

It is particularly requested that all applications will be made strictly in accordance with the above Regulations.

CROMER,
Lord Chamberlain.

REGULATIONS FOR HIS MAJESTY'S LEVÉES.

LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE,
ST. JAMES'S PALACE, S.W.1.

(1) Peers, Bishops, His Majesty's Lieutenants of Counties, Deputy Lieutenants of Counties, Members of Parliament, Officials connected with the Houses of Parliament, Clergy of all Denominations, and all gentlemen other than those mentioned in the following Regulations, should communicate with the Comptroller, Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace. No applications can be received from gentlemen in the foregoing categories wishing to be presented. Their names must be forwarded by the gentleman making the presentation.

(2) All gentlemen referred to in the following Regulations wishing to attend or be presented at a Levée, should make a written application as directed below.

(3) All Officers, whether on the active or retired list of the Royal Navy and the Royal Marines, will communicate with and obtain their cards, whether for attendance or presentation, from the Private Secretary to the First Lord of the Admiralty.

(4) All Officers on the active, retired, and reserve lists of the Regular Army, the Militia, and the Territorial Army, except Officers of the Household Cavalry and the Brigade of Guards, and except Officers of the Indian Services and Indian Army and Colonial Service and Colonial Forces, will communicate with and obtain their cards, whether for attendance or presentation, from the Under-Secretary of State, War Office.

Officers of the Household Cavalry and the Brigade of Guards will communicate, through their Regimental Headquarters, with the Comptroller, Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, to obtain their cards for attendance or presentation.

(5) All Officers on the active list of the Royal Air Force and Officers of the Special Reserve and Auxiliary Air Force will obtain their cards, for attendance or presentation, through the usual channels. Officers of the Reserve of Air Force Officers and Officers on the retired list of the Royal Air Force will communicate with and obtain their cards, whether for attendance or presentation, from the Secretary, Air Ministry, Kingsway, W.C.2.

(6) All Officers of His Majesty's Civil Service will communicate with and obtain their cards, for attendance or for presentation, from the Department under which they serve.

(7) All Officers of the Indian Services and of the Indian Army, whether on the active or retired lists, will communicate with and obtain their cards, for attendance or for presentation, from the Political A.D.C. to the Secretary of State at the India Office, Whitehall.

(8) All Officers of the Colonial Service and Colonial Forces, whether on the active or retired lists, will communicate with and obtain their cards, whether for attendance or presentation, from the Colonial Office, Whitehall, with the exception of Officers of the local Forces of the self-governing Dominions, who will apply to the Under-Secretary of State, the War Office, for their cards for attendance or for presentation, supporting their application in all cases by a credential from the Governor-General, Governor, Officer Commanding the local Forces, or the representative in London of the Dominion concerned.

(9) Gentlemen connected with the Treasury, the Foreign Office, and other Government Departments will make their applications, whether for attendance or for presentation, through the Private Secretaries to the Ministers of the respective Departments.

(10) Lord Mayors and Mayors, High Sheriffs, Sheriffs, Recorders, Chairmen of Quarter Sessions, Metropolitan Police Magistrates and other Stipendiary Magistrates, and gentlemen connected with the Home Office, will make their applications, whether for attendance or for presentation, through the Private Secretary to the Secretary of State for the Home Department.

CROMER,
Lord Chamberlain.

PEERS' ROBES.

The STATE ROBE or MANTLE is made of Crimson Velvet edged with Miniver, the cape furred with Miniver pure and powdered with bars or rows of Ermine (i.e., narrow pieces of Black Fur), according to the degree, viz. :—

For a Duke, four rows.

For a Marquis, three rows and a half.

For an Earl, three rows.

For a Viscount, two rows and a half.

For a Baron, two rows.

The Robe is worn over Full Dress Regimentals, or Uniform of any rank or appointment held, or over the Old Style of Black Velvet Court Dress, as described on page 115.

CORONETS are made of Silver Gilt, with Crimson Velvet cap turned up with Ermine with a Gold tassel in the centre. Above the Chased rim or circlet are—

For a Duke, eight Gold Strawberry Leaves.

For a Marquess, four Gold Strawberry Leaves and four Silver Balls alternately, the latter a little raised on Points.

For an Earl. Eight Silver Balls raised upon Points with Gold Strawberry Leaves between the Points.

For a Viscount. Immediately above and adjoining the Rim are sixteen Silver Balls.

For a Baron. The Circlet is plain and above the Rim are six Silver Balls at equal distances.

No jewels or precious stones are used in the Coronets, or counterfeit pearls. The Coronets of Peeresses are reduced facsimiles of those of the Peers.

The PEERS' ROBE OF SCARLET CLOTH (known as the " PARLIAMENTARY ROBE ") is of Scarlet Superfine Cloth, with Ermine and Gold Lace, and is trimmed according to rank. It is worn in the House of Lords or when the Peers proceed as a body to a Church Service or other Ceremony.

It is worn also over uniform by Peers who form part of the Procession in front of His Majesty on State occasions, such as the Opening of Parliament, and over morning dress on ordinary occasions, such as the introduction of newly created Peers in the House of Lords.

MANTLES OF THE VARIOUS ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD.

Knights of the Most Noble Order of the Garter wear Mantles of blue velvet lined with white ducape silk having on the right shoulder a crimson Hood of the same material. The Mantles are fastened by a cordon of silk of the colour of mantle and gold thread, having two blue silk and gold Tassels attached thereto. On the left side of the Mantle is embroidered a representation of the Badge of the Order, a silver Escutcheon charged with a Red Cross, the Arms of St. George, and encircled with the Garter and motto "Honi soit qui mal y pense."

Knights of the Most Ancient and Most Noble Order of the Thistle wear Mantles or Robes of green velvet lined with white ducape silk, having on the right shoulder a blue Hood of the same material. The Mantles are fastened by a cordon of silk of the colour of the Mantle and gold thread, having two green and gold Tassels attached thereto. On the left side of the Mantle is a St. Andrew's Cross of silver embroidery, with rays going out between the points of the Cross, on the middle of which a Thistle of green heightened with gold upon a field of gold is surrounded by a circle of green upon which is the motto "Nemo me impune lacessit" in letters of gold.

Knights of the Most Illustrious Order of St. Patrick wear Mantles of sky-blue satin or silk wrought in Ireland, lined with white silk, having on the right shoulder a Hood of the same material. The Mantles are fastened by a cordon of blue silk and gold, having two blue silk and gold Tassels attached thereto. On the left side of the Mantles is embroidered a representation of the Star of a Knight Companion, composed of silver, consisting of eight points, that is to say, four greater and four lesser, issuing from a centre enclosing a representation of the Badge of the Order, but without the wreath of trefoils.

Knights Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath wear Mantles of crimson satin, lined with white ducape silk. The Mantles are fastened with a cordon of white silk, having two Tassels of crimson silk and gold attached thereto. On the left side of the Mantle, below a white silk lace, is embroidered a representation of the Star of a Knight Grand Cross of this Order, which Star is in the case of every Military Knight Grand Cross, as follows, that is to say, composed of rays of silver, charged with a Maltese Cross Or, in the centre whereof, on a ground Argent, are three Imperial Crowns, one and two Or, the said three Imperial Crowns within a circle Gules, inscribed with the motto of the Order, viz., "Tria Juncta in Uno," in letters of gold, and the said circle, encompassed by two branches of laurel, in proper colours, issuant from an escrol Azure whereon is inscribed "Ich Dien," also in letters of gold. The Star which is represented upon the Mantles of Civil Knights Grand Cross is in every case as follows, that is to say, composed of rays of silver, issuing from a centre, and charged with three Imperial Crowns, one and two Or, within a circle Gules, whereon is inscribed "Tria Juncta in Uno," in letters of gold.

Knights Grand Commanders of the Most Exalted Order of the Star of India wear Mantles of light blue satin lined with white ducape silk. The Mantles are fastened with a cordon of white silk, having two blue silk and silver Tassels attached thereto. On the left side of the Mantle is a representation of the Star of a Knight Grand Commander, which is composed of rays of gold issuing from a centre having thereon a Star of five points in silver resting upon a light blue enamelled circular ribbon tied at the ends, inscribed with the motto of the Order, that is to say, "Heaven's Light Our Guide."

Knights Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George wear Mantles of Saxon blue satin, lined with scarlet silk. The Mantles are fastened with a cordon of blue and scarlet silk and gold, having two Tassels of the same colours attached thereto. On the left side of the Mantle, below a gold lace, is embroidered a representation of the Star of a Knight Grand Cross of the Order, composed of seven rays of silver, between each of which issues a small ray of gold, over all the Cross of St. George, Gules ; and in the centre of the said Star, within a circle Azure, whereon is inscribed in letters of gold the motto "Auspicium Melioris Ævi," a representation of the Archangel Saint Michael holding in his dexter hand a flaming sword, and encountering Satan.

Knights Grand Commanders of the Most Eminent Order of the Indian Empire wear Mantles of purple satin lined with white ducape silk. The Mantles are fastened with a cordon of white silk, having two purple silk and gold Tassels attached thereto. On the left side of the Mantle is embroidered the Star of a Knight Grand Commander, which is composed of five rays of silver having a smaller ray of gold between each of them, the whole alternately plain and scaled, issuing from a gold centre having thereon the Effigy of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria within a purple circle inscribed with the motto of the Order, "Imperatricis Auspiciis," in letters of gold, the circle surmounted by an Imperial Crown, also gold.

Knights Grand Cross of the Royal Victorian Order wear Mantles of dark blue satin edged with red satin two inches in width, the edging of the collar being half an inch wide, lined with white ducape silk. The Mantles are fastened with a cordon of dark blue silk and gold, having two dark blue silk and gold Tassels attached thereto. On the left side of the Mantles is embroidered a representation of the Star of a Knight Grand Cross of the said Royal Order. A Hood of red satin edged with blue is worn on the right shoulder.

Knights Grand Cross and Dames Grand Cross of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire wear Mantles of purple satin lined with white silk, fastened with a cordon of white silk, having two purple and silver tassels attached thereto. On the left side of the Mantles is embroidered a representation of the Star of a Knight Grand Cross or Dame Grand Cross of the said Order, which is composed of rays of silver of eight points, in the centre of which is a gold medallion with a representation of Britannia seated, within a circle Gules inscribed with the motto " For God and the Empire " in letters of gold.

N.B.—Sealed patterns or designs of the Mantles of the Orders of the Garter, Thistle, Bath, Star of India, St. Michael and St. George, Indian Empire, Royal Victorian Order and the British Empire can be seen at the Central Chancery of the Orders of Knighthood, St. James's Palace, and that of the Order of St. Patrick at the Chancery of the Order, Dublin Castle.

uniform may at their option wear either military uniform or plain clothes.

Exception.—Royal Engineer officers, officers of the Indian Medical Service and the Survey of India and Cantonment Magistrates wear military uniform on all occasions when military officers wear uniform.

- (c) Military officers who are temporarily in civil employ shall wear their military uniform, but may, if they desire, wear plain clothes instead of mess uniform, on occasions when the latter is worn by officers in military employ.

V.—An officer appointed temporarily to an office, for which a uniform is prescribed, need not wear that uniform.

VI.—Civil Officers who, on retirement or resignation from the service, wish to wear the uniform to which they are entitled when last on duty in India shall make a written application for permission to do so :—

- (1) To the Under-Secretary of State, India Office, Whitehall, London, if permission is sought to wear the uniform at the Court of His Majesty the King Emperor ;
- (2) To the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department, if permission is sought to wear the uniform in India.

VII.—Members of the Indian Civil Service and Indian gentlemen appointed to be members of an Executive Council and Ministers, when on leave in England, or otherwise present there during their service, will be permitted to wear their uniform at the Court of His Majesty the King-Emperor.

VIII.—All persons in possession of Civil Uniform made in accordance with the old Regulations may continue to wear such uniform as heretofore.

IX.—An officer may wear the class of uniform to which he is personally entitled when such uniform is of a higher class than that to which he is entitled by virtue of the office he holds.

Recorders when reading an Address to the King should wear the same as at Court.

MANNER OF WEARING UNIFORM.

A soft fronted shirt with stiff White cuffs is the best to wear with uniform.

When breeches are worn, pants should reach to the knees only or a combination suit to reach to the knees.

With stockings it is advisable to wear a thin pair of cotton hose under the silk. This prevents the flesh being seen through the silk. Both pairs should be well pulled up over the knees and should fit closely. Shoes should not have too thin a sole unless they are worn for dancing. Care should be taken to secure sword belts from showing below coats or waistcoats or above waistcoat openings. This end may be achieved by wearing the belt under the braces.

With Court Suits plain Gold or Pearl studs should be in the shirt front, and watch chains should not be worn. The Black Silk fob with seals, if worn, should hang from the fob pocket on the right side.

THE CARE AND PRESERVATION OF UNIFORM.

All Gold and Silver Laced garments or articles should be folded or wrapped in the paper made for the purpose and placed in air-tight tin cases. Care should be taken that no article is put away damp. All articles liable to be eaten by moth should be unfolded at intervals and well beaten and brushed in the open air.

Russia Leather parings, powdered camphor, naphthaline, carbolized paper, or turpentine sprinkled on brown paper should be placed among the articles of uniform which are to be packed away for any time.

Gold Lace that has become slightly tarnished can be cleaned with a mixture of cream of tartar and dry bread rubbed up very fine applied in a dry state and brushed lightly with a clean soft brush.
